

Come rain or shine

Idiom in Sentence

Examples

- "Come rain or shine, the farmers are in the fields taking care of their crops."
- "She promised to be at the game, come rain or shine, to support her son."
- "We hold our annual family reunion come rain or shine, and nothing can stop us."
- "The marathon will proceed as planned, come rain or shine."
- "Come rain or shine, he's always the first one to arrive at the office."
- "The band vowed to perform at the outdoor venue, come rain or shine."
- "Our local mail carrier delivers the mail come rain or shine, even on the toughest days."
- "She is dedicated to her morning jog, come rain or shine."
- "I'll be there to pick you up from the airport, come rain or shine."
- "The festival is set to continue throughout the weekend, come rain or shine."
- "They've been best friends for years, sticking by each other come rain or shine."
- "Come rain or shine, the team practices every single day."
- "He made a vow to walk the dog every morning, come rain or shine."
- "We will have the picnic as planned, come rain or shine."

- "The artist said the mural would be completed in a week, come rain or shine."
- "Your grandma always went to church on Sundays, come rain or shine."
- "He's committed to his garden, tending to it come rain or shine."
- "The food drive will happen this weekend, come rain or shine, so please donate what you can."
- "Their friendship stood the test of time, remaining strong come rain or shine."
- "The volunteers are passionate about the beach cleanup; they are there every month, come rain or shine."

Copyright @ Examples.com