

Crocodile Tears

Idiom in Sentence

Examples

- In Court: The defendant shed crocodile tears on the stand, but the jury wasn't convinced of his remorse.
- Political Context: The senator's crocodile tears during the press conference didn't fool anyone; his voting record speaks for itself.
- Corporate World: She cried crocodile tears when her co-worker was fired, even though she had contributed to the complaints against him.
- Family Matters: When he broke the vase, his crocodile tears couldn't save him from being grounded.
- Social Media: The influencer's crocodile tears in the apology video did little to win back lost followers.
- In Relationships: He had a history of cheating, so his crocodile tears didn't impress her this time.
- Customer Service: The customer's crocodile tears didn't get him the refund he was hoping for; the store's policy was clear.
- In Sports: After the foul, the player shed crocodile tears in an attempt to sway the referee's decision.
- Educational Setting: The student's crocodile tears didn't convince the teacher to extend the project deadline.
- Parenting: When told to share, the child's crocodile tears were quickly replaced by a smile when he got his way.

- Literature: The villain's crocodile tears in the final chapter were a stark contrast to his earlier ruthlessness.
- Reality TV: Her crocodile tears during the elimination round were clearly aimed at gaining sympathy votes.
- Healthcare: The doctor wasn't moved by the patient's crocodile tears and insisted on further tests.
- Journalism: The CEO's crocodile tears during the interview about layoffs left employees even more skeptical.
- Legal Contracts: His crocodile tears didn't absolve him from the clear terms and conditions he had violated.
- Animal Welfare: The activist's crocodile tears about animal rights seemed less genuine given her leather handbag.
- Community Issues: The councilman's crocodile tears about the community center's closure didn't match his previous actions.
- Job Interviews: Despite her crocodile tears, the hiring manager was not convinced of her passion for the job.
- Financial World: His crocodile tears about market fluctuations seemed insincere given his aggressive investment strategies.
- Friendships: Her crocodile tears were not enough to mend the friendship she had knowingly sabotaged.