
Friendly Thankful Resignation Letter Example

Dear [Manager's Name],

Hey there! It's with a mix of excitement and sadness that I'm penning down my resignation from [Company Name]. Before rumors start swirling that I've won the lottery (I wish!), I'm making a move for [specific reason, e.g., further studies, a change in career direction].

From the surprise birthday parties to the late-night project marathons - every moment here has been nothing short of spectacular. I'm incredibly grateful for the camaraderie, laughter, and occasional shared groans about Monday mornings.

Promise me you'll keep in touch, and perhaps our paths will cross again in another professional (or fun) adventure. Thank you for everything!

Cheers to new beginnings,

[Your Name]
