

Full of Beans Idiom in Sentence Examples

- Morning Exercise: After his morning jog, John was full of beans and ready to conquer the day.
- Workplace: The new intern is full of beans; she's already proposed several innovative ideas.
- Family Gathering: The children were full of beans at the family reunion, running around and playing games.
- School Setting: Ever since he got accepted into his dream college, Tim has been full of beans.
- Social Events: Sarah was full of beans at the party, keeping everyone entertained with her stories and jokes.
- In Relationships: Since they started dating, Emily has been full of beans, glowing with happiness.
- Cultural Events: The festival was full of beans, with vibrant music, dance, and art installations everywhere.
- During Holidays: During Christmas, the house is always full of beans with family visiting and children playing.
- Fitness: After adopting a healthier diet, Lara has been full of beans and more active than ever.
- Outdoor Activities: The hiking group was full of beans, eagerly taking on even the most challenging trails.

- Public Speaking: The motivational speaker was full of beans, inspiring the audience with his powerful words.
- Entertainment Industry: The comedian was full of beans on stage, delivering one punchline after another.
- Sports: The team was full of beans after their incredible comeback win last night.
- Travel: Ever since she returned from her world tour, Jenny has been full of beans, sharing tales of her adventures.
- Artistic Pursuits: The artist was full of beans at his exhibition opening, discussing his work passionately with visitors.
- Retail: The sales staff was full of beans during the holiday season, helping customers with genuine enthusiasm.
- Music: The band was full of beans at the concert, putting on an unforgettable performance.
- Volunteering: The volunteers were full of beans, dedicating their time and energy to help the community.
- Celebrations: At his surprise birthday party, Mark was full of beans, enjoying every moment.
- Elderly: Despite her age, Grandma is full of beans, always keeping up with her grandchildren during visits.