
Internship Cover Letter for Supply Chain Job Example

Dear [Hiring Manager's Name],

I am applying for the Supply Chain Internship position at [Company Name]. As a [Your Major] student at [Your University], I have developed a strong understanding of supply chain operations and strategic planning.

My coursework in [mention a specific course] and my experience in [mention a role or project] have equipped me with skills in data analysis and problem-solving, essential for effective supply chain management.

I am attracted to [Company Name] because of its [mention something you admire about the company], and I am confident this internship would provide me with the valuable experience I seek.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of discussing my suitability for this role.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]