
No Notice Resignation Letter

Dear [Manager's Name],

Regrettably, due to unforeseen circumstances, I must resign from my position as [Your Position], effective immediately. I deeply regret not being able to provide any notice and understand the difficulties this might pose.

My decision stems from urgent personal reasons that demand my full attention. I'm happy to provide any necessary support from afar to aid the transition. Thank you for the trust and opportunities you've given me during my tenure.

Warm regards,
