
Resignation Letter Example for High Salary Job

Dear [Supervisor's Name],

I'm writing to formally resign from my position at [Current Company Name], effective [End Date]. An unforeseen job opportunity has emerged, offering a significant increase in compensation which aligns more closely with my personal and financial goals.

I have always regarded [Current Company Name] as a pinnacle of professional excellence, and my experiences here have provided a solid foundation that I will always treasure. I have learned much from you and my colleagues, experiences I'll carry with me into the future.

I understand the impact my departure might have, and I am committed to assisting in any transition process that will help alleviate any challenges.

Thank you for understanding, and I hope to remain in contact as our professional paths evolve.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]