
Resignation Letter for Health Reasons with Notice Period

Dear [Manager's Name],

I wish to formally resign from my position at [Company Name], effective [last working day], adhering to the [xx]-day notice period as per our agreement.

While I have immensely enjoyed my role and the projects I've been fortunate to be a part of, recent health complications necessitate this decision. My primary focus now is on recovery and ensuring I regain my health.

I am dedicated to facilitating a smooth transition, assisting in training or any other support needed during the notice period.

Thank you for your understanding and the wonderful opportunities provided during my time here.

Best wishes,
[Your Name]
