
Thankful Resignation Letter To Colleagues

Example

Dear Team,

As I pen down this letter, the weight of gratitude feels overwhelming. It's been [duration, e.g., "five years"] at [Company Name], and the journey has been nothing short of extraordinary because of each one of you.

Every challenge turned into an opportunity with your unwavering support. The late-night brainstorming sessions, the deadline-driven coffee breaks, and our team celebrations have been some of the most cherished moments of my professional life.

I'm moving forward in my career, but I carry forward lessons, memories, and, most importantly, gratitude. Thank you for making my time here memorable.

With deepest appreciation,

[Your Name]
