
Thankful Resignation Letter for Family Reasons

Dear [Manager's Name],

I am writing to tender my resignation from my position at [Company Name], effective [last working day], due to unforeseen family responsibilities that require my undivided attention. My time here has been both professionally and personally rewarding. I am deeply thankful to you and the entire team for the understanding, support, and opportunities I've been afforded. While my priorities pull me towards my family currently, the memories and learnings from here will always hold a special place in my heart.

With warm regards and gratitude,

[Your Name]
