
Unhappy Resignation Letter without Notice

Dear [Manager's Name],

I regret to inform you that I am resigning from my position as [Your Position] with [Company Name], effective immediately. Given the circumstances and the challenges I've faced, I feel it's best for both the organization and myself that I step away without the customary notice period.

Please understand that this decision was made after much deliberation. I wish the team success in future endeavors.

Regards,

[Your Name]
