
Cover Letter Example for New Teacher

Dear [Hiring Manager's Name],

I recently graduated with honors from [University Name] and am eager to begin my teaching career at [School's Name]. While I may be a new entrant to the professional teaching world, my student-teaching experience at [Practicum School Name] allowed me to harness my fresh academic knowledge in real-world classroom settings.

During my practicum, I had the chance to work with diverse student populations and employed differentiated instruction techniques that were met with enthusiasm and success. The recentness of my own education, combined with my hands-on teaching experiences, equips me with modern methodologies and the latest pedagogical insights.

I am keen to bring my youthful energy, commitment, and recent training to [School's Name], contributing to our shared goal of providing students with top-notch education.

Thank you for considering my application.

Best,

[Your Name]
