

Inference in a Sentence Examples

1. Sarah locked her diary after writing, suggesting she had secrets.
2. Henry packed a suitcase and looked at flight schedules, implying he plans to travel.
3. Jenny bought a new crib, hinting she is expecting a baby.
4. Mark cleared his desk and turned off his computer, signaling the end of his workday.
5. Emily wore a jersey and carried a foam finger, indicating she was going to a sports event.
6. David turned up the thermostat; hence, he was cold.
7. Katie lowered her voice when her boss walked in, insinuating she was discussing something private.
8. Linda studied late into the night, showing her dedication to academics.
9. The dog's tail wagged when he saw his leash, revealing his eagerness for a walk.
10. Tim carried a bouquet of roses, implying a romantic intention.
11. Amanda's eyes widened at the menu prices, hinting she found it expensive.
12. The teacher set down his chalk and rubbed his temples, signaling he needed a break.
13. Jack looked at his watch three times in a minute, indicating he was in a hurry.
14. Michelle started wearing more formal clothes, implying a change in her job role.
15. When Karen received the invitation, she immediately looked at her calendar, suggesting she wants to attend.
16. The store manager turned the sign to "Closed," indicating the day's business was over.
17. Peter's face turned red when mentioned in the meeting, revealing his discomfort.

18. Olivia read the room's atmosphere and quickly left, hinting at her keen social awareness.
19. Scott's tone changed when he spoke about his family, suggesting a personal sensitivity.
20. The dark clouds in the sky were a sign, implying that rain was coming soon.
21. Lisa carefully locked all the files in her drawer, indicating they were confidential.
22. Steve brought in his tools and looked at the broken table, signaling his intent to fix it.
23. Susan hesitated before answering, revealing her uncertainty.
24. The crowd's cheers grew louder as the player scored, showing their approval.
25. Jamie looked at her phone but didn't answer, implying she was avoiding the call.
26. The lights dimmed in the theater, signifying the start of the show.
27. Emily's letter was filled with apologies, revealing her regret.
28. Kevin checked the house locks twice, suggesting he is cautious.
29. Rebecca wore sunglasses indoors, hinting at a late night.
30. Ben sighed and looked out of the window, indicating his mind was elsewhere.
31. Sarah's persistent cough hinted that she might be getting sick.
32. The boss winked at Jim during the meeting, signaling some inside information.
33. The dog's wagging tail showed he was happy to see you.
34. Mary looked at her sister and rolled her eyes, indicating her disapproval.
35. When asked about the project, Tim hesitated, revealing his lack of confidence.
36. The employee gave his two-weeks notice, suggesting he had found another job.
37. Lily's clenched fists implied she was holding back her emotions.
38. A standing ovation from the audience revealed the success of the performance.
39. The flight attendant started handing out landing cards, signaling we were nearing our destination.
40. Patricia's sudden interest in the gym hinted at a desire for a healthier lifestyle.
41. Cindy put her phone face down, implying she wanted to focus on the conversation.
42. The student continuously looked at the clock, indicating boredom or impatience.
43. The politician avoided the question, signaling there was more to the story.

44. Gary's shaking hands during the interview suggested his nervousness.
45. The sudden change in music tempo implied a change in the scene's mood.
46. She read the message and sighed, hinting at her disappointment.
47. The faded signposts along the trail signaled neglect or lack of maintenance.
48. The CEO's face lit up when profits were mentioned, revealing his primary concern.
49. John uploaded photos of beaches and sunsets, suggesting he was on vacation.
50. Laura started saving money, indicating plans for a big purchase in the near future.
51. Diane kept looking at her friend's plate, suggesting she wanted to share the dessert.
52. The teacher's frown indicated that she was not pleased with the class's performance.
53. Tim's constant glancing at his phone during dinner implied that he had something else on his mind.
54. The coach clenched his fists, signaling his team to be more aggressive.
55. Amanda put on her headphones, indicating she didn't want to be disturbed.
56. David turned up the thermostat, suggesting that he was cold.
57. Sharon started wearing her hair differently, hinting at a change in her style or mood.
58. During the test, Jane kept rereading the questions, indicating her confusion.
59. Brian started reading real estate brochures, implying an interest in buying property.
60. Carol's eyes widened when she saw the cake, revealing her surprise.
61. Emily cleared her browser history, hinting that she wanted to keep her activities private.
62. The lifeguard blew the whistle twice, signaling it was time to get out of the pool.
63. Robert turned his chair towards Sarah, indicating he was giving her his full attention.
64. Mark's sudden interest in cooking shows suggested he was learning to cook.
65. The loud cheers from the crowd implied the home team had scored.

66. Clara took her engagement ring off before the meeting, signaling potential relationship issues.
67. Peter started studying late at night, indicating a lot of academic pressure.
68. The cat's constant meowing hinted that it wanted to go outside.
69. The child's constant tapping on the desk indicated impatience.
70. Bill placed his book upside down on the table, signaling that he had finished reading.
71. Her rapid speech during the call implied she was in a rush.
72. The closed door suggested the meeting was private.
73. The smell of fresh coffee in the air indicated that someone had made a pot.
74. Danny looked at his watch repeatedly, suggesting he had to leave soon.
75. The teacher's smile after the exam hinted it had gone well for the students.
76. The dimming of the lights signaled the beginning of the movie.
77. Sarah checked her makeup in the mirror, implying she wanted to look her best.
78. When Henry picked up his briefcase, it was clear he was leaving.
79. The server started handing out the bill, signaling the end of the meal.
80. The sudden silence in the room implied something important had happened.
81. Her curt reply hinted at her irritation.
82. The long queue outside the store indicated a big sale or popular product.
83. His evasion of eye contact suggested he was not being truthful.
84. The siren indicated there was an emergency.
85. The sound of footsteps suggested someone was approaching.
86. He saved her the last piece of pie, revealing his affection.
87. Kevin picked up his guitar, signaling he was about to play.
88. Jenny looked at her empty ring finger, implying she missed being married.
89. The nod from the instructor indicated approval.
90. Grace's handwritten notes in the book suggested it was a cherished possession.
91. His sudden laughter during the serious meeting hinted at some private joke.
92. Alice changed her profile picture to a sunset, suggesting a peaceful state of mind.
93. The director's stern face indicated his dissatisfaction with the scene.
94. The flickering lights signaled a possible electrical problem.

95. Martha's meticulous notes indicated her thoroughness and attention to detail.
96. The beep of the oven signaled that the baking was done.
97. Laura's suitcase at the front door hinted she was going somewhere.
98. His wink indicated he was joking.
99. The prolonged applause from the audience revealed their appreciation.
100. Her deep sigh indicated relief or exhaustion.

Copyright @ Examples.com