
Non Profit Cover Letter for Entry Level Position Example

Dear [Recipient Name],

As a recent graduate from [University Name] with a degree in [Specific Degree, e.g., "Social Work"], I am eager to apply my academic knowledge and volunteer experiences to a full-time role in the non-profit sector. Your recent opening for an entry-level position at [Organization's Name] immediately caught my attention due to its alignment with both my personal and professional aspirations.

During my time at [University Name], I volunteered with [Relevant Volunteer Group], where I learned the importance of [specific non-profit activity, e.g., "community outreach"]. While I may be at the start of my professional journey, my dedication, adaptability, and keen interest in [specific non-profit focus, e.g., "education reform"] make me a valuable asset.

Thank you for considering my candidacy. I am excited about the potential to kick-start my non-profit career at [Organization's Name] and contribute meaningfully to your mission.

Best regards,

[Your Name]
