
Training Contract Law Cover Letter Example

Dear [Hiring Manager's Name],

I am writing to apply for a training contract at [Company/Firm's Name], starting in [specific year or time, e.g., "September 2024"]. As a final-year student at [Your Law School Name], I have consistently ranked in the top [specific percentage, e.g., "10%"] of my class and am eager to translate my academic insights into practical experience.

Your firm's commitment to [specific area, e.g., "pro bono work"] and its renowned [specific feature, e.g., "training program"] are particularly appealing to me. My involvement in [specific activity, e.g., "the university's legal aid clinic"] has cemented my passion for [specific area of law, e.g., "social justice"], and I am confident that a training contract at [Company/Firm's Name] is the ideal next step in my budding legal career.

Thank you for considering my application. I am deeply excited about the opportunity to learn from and contribute to the esteemed team at [Company/Firm's Name].

Yours Sincerely,

[Your Name]