

Common Metaphor Phrases With Meaning

- "Breaking the ice" -
Meaning: Initiating a conversation in a social setting.
Usage: To describe starting a dialogue in a new or awkward situation.
- "Spreading like wildfire" -
Meaning: Something becoming known or popular very quickly.
Usage: Describing rapid expansion or spread, often of news or information.
- "A breath of fresh air" -
Meaning: Something new and refreshing.
Usage: Complimenting an innovative idea or a refreshing personality.
- "The light of my life" -
Meaning: A person who brings great happiness.
Usage: To express deep affection or admiration for someone.
- "A storm brewing" -
Meaning: A situation that is about to become problematic or difficult.
Usage: Warning of impending trouble or conflict.
- "On cloud nine" -
Meaning: Feeling extremely happy or elated.
Usage: To convey a state of great joy or happiness.
- "A melting pot" -
Meaning: A place or situation where different cultures or styles merge.
Usage: Describing cultural or social diversity and integration.

- "An uphill battle" -

Meaning: A difficult struggle.

Usage: Talking about a challenging task or situation.

- "At a crossroads" -

Meaning: At a point where a crucial decision needs to be made.

Usage: Describing a critical or defining moment in life or a project.

- "A blanket of snow" -

Meaning: A complete covering of snow.

Usage: To describe a thick, even layer of snow covering an area.