

Famous Metaphor Phrases With Meaning

- "All the world's a stage" -
Meaning: Life is like a play, and people are like actors.
Usage: To describe the roles people play in life. Originating from Shakespeare's 'As You Like It'.
- "The pen is mightier than the sword" -
Meaning: Writing is more effective than violence.
Usage: Emphasizing the power of words over force. Coined by Edward Bulwer-Lytton.
- "A heart of gold" -
Meaning: A very kind and generous nature.
Usage: Praising someone's kindness and goodness.
- "The apple of my eye" -
Meaning: Someone dearly loved.
Usage: To express deep affection for someone. A phrase with biblical origins.
- "It's raining cats and dogs" -
Meaning: Raining very heavily.
Usage: Describing a heavy rainstorm. A classic English idiom.
- "A diamond in the rough" -
Meaning: Someone with potential yet unrefined.
Usage: Acknowledging someone's unpolished talents.
- "Burning the candle at both ends" -
Meaning: Overworking or exhausting oneself.

Usage: Describing someone who is working too hard, often at the expense of their health.

- "A stitch in time saves nine" -

Meaning: Solving a problem quickly prevents it from becoming bigger.

Usage: Advising prompt action to prevent further issues.

- "You can't teach an old dog new tricks" -

Meaning: It's hard to change someone's established behavior.

Usage: Discussing the difficulties of changing habits or learning new skills later in life.

- "Don't cry over spilt milk" -

Meaning: Don't be upset over something that cannot be fixed.

Usage: Advising someone to move on from minor setbacks.