

The Sunlit Path

Endless marking

need a break,

Even coffee didn't

fix fatigue,

Feet started walking

I just followed,

Bemused just

floating along,

Magpie on shoulder

cleaning beak,

Gross Magles!!

Winter's day

late afternoon

setting sun,

Forest path luminous

directing treading shadow,

Seemed processional,

Watched and encouraged by flanking trees,

Quiet and dreamlike

footsteps on path.
