

Wedding Speech by Father of Groom

1. Opening (Introduction)

- Welcome the guests and express gratitude for their presence.
- Share how proud and honored you are to speak at your son's wedding.

Example:

"Good evening, everyone. For those of you who don't know me, I'm [Your Name], the proud father of the groom. It's a true honor to stand here today and celebrate this incredible occasion with all of you."

2. Speak About Your Son

- Share a heartfelt reflection on your son's journey—childhood, accomplishments, and the person he's become.
- Highlight his qualities that make him a wonderful partner.

Example:

"[Groom's Name], watching you grow has been one of the greatest joys of my life. From the curious little boy who never stopped asking questions to the determined, kind, and loving man you've become, you've made me proud every step of the way. Today, seeing you marry [Bride's Name] fills my heart with happiness because I know you've found someone who truly completes you."

3. Welcome the Bride

- Speak warmly about the bride and welcome her into the family.
- Share what makes her special or how she complements your son.

Example:

"[Bride's Name], from the moment we met you, we knew you were someone extraordinary. Your kindness, warmth, and the way you light up [Groom's Name]'s world is something we're so grateful for. Welcome to our family—you've made it even better."

4. Reflect on Their Love

- Share your observations about their relationship and what makes them a great couple.

- Add a piece of marriage advice or a heartfelt wish for their future.

Example:

"The love you share is built on trust, respect, and a sense of partnership that's truly inspiring. Remember to always communicate, laugh often, and support each other through life's ups and downs. If you do, your bond will only grow stronger with time."

5. Raise a Toast

- End with a toast that expresses your wishes for their happiness and future.

Example:

"Let's raise our glasses to [Bride's Name] and [Groom's Name]: May your lives together be filled with love, laughter, and countless beautiful memories. Cheers!"
