

Wedding Speech by Father of the Bride

1. Opening (Introduction)

- Welcome the guests and thank them for being part of this special day.
- Share your feelings about giving the speech.

Example:

"Good evening, everyone. For those of you who don't know me, I'm [Your Name], the proud father of the bride. Standing here today, I feel a mix of emotions—joy, pride, and maybe a little disbelief that my little girl is now a married woman!"

2. Speak About Your Daughter

- Reflect on her childhood, milestones, and the person she has become.
- Share a heartfelt or humorous story about your bond.

Example:

"[Bride's Name], watching you grow up has been the greatest privilege of my life. From the little girl who insisted on wearing her princess dress everywhere—yes, even to the grocery store—to the confident, kind, and beautiful woman you are today, you've never ceased to amaze me. You've brought so much joy and laughter to our lives, and I'm so proud of the person you've become."

3. Welcome the Groom

- Speak warmly about the groom and welcome him into the family.
- Highlight qualities you admire in him and what makes him a good match for your daughter.

Example:

"[Groom's Name], when we first met you, I could see the way you looked at [Bride's Name]—like she was the most important person in the world. And after getting to know you, it was clear that you have a kind heart, a good sense of humor, and most importantly, a deep love for my daughter. Welcome to the family—we're thrilled to have you."

4. Share a Reflection on Love and Marriage

- Offer advice, share a meaningful quote, or reflect on the importance of partnership in marriage.

Example:

"Marriage isn't just about love—it's about partnership, patience, and finding joy in the everyday moments. Remember to laugh together, support each other, and never forget why you fell in love in the first place."

5. End with a Toast

- Conclude with a heartfelt and celebratory toast to the couple.

Example:

"So, let's raise our glasses to [Bride's Name] and [Groom's Name]. May your life together be filled with love, laughter, and happiness. And may this be the start of an incredible adventure. Cheers!"
