

Wedding Speech by Mother of the Groom

1. Opening (Introduction)

- Begin by introducing yourself and thanking everyone for being part of the special day.
- Share your excitement and honor to speak.

Example:

"Good evening, everyone. For those of you who don't know me, I'm [Your Name], the proud mother of the groom. It's such a joy to be here with all of you to celebrate this incredible day."

2. Speak About Your Son

- Reflect on your son's journey, sharing a few personal or meaningful anecdotes from his childhood or adulthood.
- Highlight his qualities that make you proud and how he's grown into the man he is today.

Example:

"[Groom's Name], from the moment you were born, you brought so much joy into my life. Watching you grow into the kind, strong, and loving man you are today has been one of my greatest blessings. Whether it was your determination to [specific example] or your ability to [specific quality], you've always made me so proud."

3. Welcome the Bride

- Share your first impressions of the bride and what you admire about her.
- Express how thrilled you are to welcome her into the family.

Example:

"[Bride's Name], from the moment we met you, I could see how special you were. Your warmth, kindness, and the way you light up [Groom's Name]'s world have made it so clear that you're the perfect match. I couldn't be happier to officially welcome you to our family."

4. Reflect on Their Love

- Share your thoughts on their relationship and what makes them a great couple.
- Include a wish for their future together.

Example:

"The love you two share is something truly special. It's built on respect, laughter, and the ability to bring out the best in each other. My wish for you is that your life together is filled with endless love, happiness, and unforgettable memories."
