

Artist Bio for Third Person

---

Name and Artistic Medium:

 Julia Henderson – Landscape Photographer

Biography:

Julia Henderson is a renowned landscape photographer based in Portland, Oregon. She holds a BA in Visual Arts from the University of Oregon and has been capturing the natural world through her lens for over a decade. Julia's work is celebrated for its ability to depict the subtle beauty of fleeting moments in nature.

Artistic Style:

Julia's photography is characterized by its serene and contemplative quality. She has a keen eye for light and composition, which allows her to create striking images that convey a sense of peace and awe. Her work often features expansive natural scenes, from rugged coastlines to tranquil forest paths, captured in the golden hours of dawn and dusk.

Major Works and Achievements:

Her photographs have been exhibited in galleries and art shows across the country, including the prestigious National Geographic Gallery in Washington, D.C. Julia's series, "Whispers of the Wild," received critical acclaim and was awarded the Best Landscape Photography Series at the International Photography Awards in 2020.

Philosophy or Artistic Vision:

Julia believes that photography is a powerful tool for storytelling and environmental advocacy. Through her images, she aims to inspire a deeper appreciation for the natural world and an urgency to protect it. Her artistic vision is rooted in the idea that every landscape holds a story that deserves to be told and preserved.

Recent and Upcoming Projects:

Julia is currently working on a project titled "Vanishing Vistas," which focuses on landscapes threatened by environmental change. This series is set to be featured in an upcoming solo exhibition at the Environmental Art Museum in San Francisco next spring.
