

Artist Bio for Exhibition

Name and Artistic Medium:

 Sophia Moreno – Sculptor and Installation Artist

Biography:

Sophia Moreno hails from Austin, Texas, and holds an MFA in Sculpture from the Rhode Island School of Design. Over the past fifteen years, Sophia has developed a distinctive artistic voice through her dynamic sculptures and large-scale installations. Her work has been exhibited internationally, gaining recognition for its innovative use of materials and its profound commentary on human and environmental interconnections.

Artistic Style:

Sophia's sculptures and installations are known for their complex interplay of organic and industrial elements. She utilizes a variety of materials, from reclaimed wood and metals to resin and glass, creating pieces that are not only visually striking but also deeply meaningful. Her works often reflect themes of resilience and transformation, drawing inspiration from both natural landscapes and urban environments.

Major Works and Achievements:

Sophia's notable exhibitions include "Resonant Forms" at the Paris Art Museum and "Structures of Memory" at the Tokyo International Art Fair. Her piece, "Eclipse," a large-scale installation featuring interlocking metal and light elements, received the Innovative Art Prize in Berlin in 2019. Sophia's works are part of several public art collections and have been commissioned by various cultural institutions worldwide.

Philosophy or Artistic Vision:

At the heart of Sophia's practice is a commitment to exploring the delicate balance between nature and human-made structures. She strives to create art that serves as a bridge, fostering a dialogue between the viewer and the environment. Her pieces invite contemplation and conversation, challenging audiences to reconsider their relationship with the natural world.

Recent and Upcoming Projects:

Sophia is currently working on a commissioned piece for the new eco-technology center in San Francisco, which will be unveiled next year. She is also preparing for her upcoming solo exhibition, "Interwoven," at the New York Museum of Contemporary Art, which will feature a series of new installations focused on the theme of interconnectedness.

Contact Information:

For further inquiries about Sophia Moreno's work or upcoming exhibitions, please visit her website at www.sophiamorenoart.com. For press and collaboration opportunities, contact her agent via email provided on the website.